

MARKET ACTIVE AND STRONG ALL ALONG LIST

Stocks Not Influenced by the Material Decline in American Securities at London.

New York Traction Make Gains—Anticipations of No Tariff Changes Aid Prices.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The Stock Market, uninfluenced by the material declines showing in American stocks in the London market, opened strong and active in practically every quarter.

The local traction stocks were again the features of the market in respect of strength and activity, notably for Brooklyn Rapid Transit and Metropolitan Street Railway. Manhattan Railway, on the other hand, was nothing more than steady. No definite explanation of the special activity in this quarter of the market came to light this morning.

In the railway list strong and active features were Louisville and Nashville, Southern and Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Atchafalpa, and Baltimore and Ohio. New York Central advanced further and St. Paul was largely dealt in at a high level.

Among the miscellaneous issues the strongest features were Amalgamated Copper, Pressed Steel Car, and Western Union. Sugar Refining was largely dealt in in advance of the declaration of the dividend, which will be acted upon this afternoon. The United States Steel stocks were also active and firm, notably for the preferred.

As was the case yesterday, sentiment was strengthened by the conviction that there will be nothing in the President's message calculated to derange confidence, and by assurances from the leaders of the Republican party in Congress that no changes in the tariff will be enacted at this session of Congress.

The following were the stock quotations at 1:30 p. m.:

TRAVELS FAR, BUT FAILS TO ESCAPE ARREST

Taken Into Custody as He Lands at San Francisco, After 8,000 Miles Journey.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Benjamin F. Chadey, a young lawyer who traveled 8,000 miles over land and sea to escape the clutches of the law, only to be arrested as he landed from a steamship in San Francisco two weeks ago, was yesterday brought back to this city and locked up in the Adams Street police station in Brooklyn on two bench warrants charging him with contempt of court. One of these warrants was issued when an aunt of the late William Meyer accused Chadey of having illegally kept $9,000, part of the proceeds of a settlement he had made for her.

Mrs. Chadey went with her husband on his travels to escape the law, leaving Brooklyn soon after Surrogate Church had scored Chadey for his methods in relation to the estate of Daniel M. Collins, a wealthy Brooklyn Jeweler. They first, it is said, went to New Jersey and took passage under assumed names on a steamer for South America. After visiting Panama and Colon Chadey and his wife started back for this country, intending to settle in San Francisco. They took passage from Colon on the Pacific Mail steamship Newport.

As Chadey walked down the gangplank of the steamer at its San Francisco dock he was arrested by J. Edward Orr, a private detective, who had traced him and had gone from this city to San Francisco to capture him on his arrival.

ARRESTED IN LONDON FOR NINE-YEAR-OLD CRIME

Withyman Charged With Murder Committed in a Chicago Hotel.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—George Withyman, also known under the name of Stone, who, it is alleged, committed a murder in Chicago nine years ago and then fled to this city to stand trial on an indictment for murder still pending against him in the criminal court.

Detective Sergeant Arthur McCarthy, of the Central Station, has completed his preparations to go to England to secure custody of the fugitive. He will probably leave Chicago the early part of the week.

Nine years ago Withyman, who was known in this city as Stone, is said to have killed a man named Robert Nelson, at the Hotel Turner. The murder was committed July 6, 1893. Since that time Sergeant Frank McDonnell has followed clues that finally led to the arrest of the fugitive in London.

ACTOR KILLS ACTRESS; ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Victim a Member of Keith's Stock Company.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—Inspired by jealousy, Barry Johnstone, an actor, late a member of Richard Mansfield's company, shot and instantly killed Kate Hassett, one of the leading members of the stock company at Keith's North Eighth Street playhouse.

After firing five shots at the woman he turned the revolver upon himself and sent a bullet plowing through his left breast just above the heart. He cannot recover.

The tragedy took place at the corner of Darien and Wood Streets shortly before midnight last night. Just after Miss Hassett had left the theater at the conclusion of her evening performance in "What Happened to Jones." An eyewitness said that before he fired Johnstone exclaimed:

"You have been false to me."

Cannot Live. He is at the hospital and cannot live, Johnstone was still conscious when picked up. Asked why he had done the shooting, he replied:

"I loved her and she was not faithful."

The victim was unable to speak. In fact, it is probable that she was already dead. The patrol was at once summoned and both the dead and the living were placed therein and driven with all possible haste to the Hahnemann Hospital.

On the way to that institution Johnstone, it is said, declared that he was glad that he had shot the woman and hoped that he himself would die. The physicians in attendance, as soon as they had examined Miss Hassett, stated that life was probably extinct before she was placed in the patrol wagon.

Unsuccessful Probing for Bullets. Johnstone's wounds were cleaned and the doctors expressed the opinion that while it might be dangerous to probe for the bullets, nevertheless, that course was the only hope left of saving his life. The task was undertaken, but the bullets could not be located.

Those who have knowledge of the facts declare that jealousy was the cause of the tragedy. Both Mrs. Hassett and Mr. Johnstone were married, but each was living apart from husband and wife, respectively. Johnstone, it is said, had become infatuated with the remarkably clever and handsome woman. She also seemed to have a liking for him and was frequently seen in his company.

Letter to Brother. In the pockets of Johnstone's clothes were found numerous letters. One of these was addressed to his brother, Robert H. Johnstone, 324 Delaware Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

"Dear Brother," it read: "Inclosed I send you a check on the Excelsior Bank of New York city, for the sum of $200. I want mother and yourself to have all my effects. Bury me inexpensively, wherever seems most fit. God bless all and be good and true to all, as I have and tried to be. Your brother, Barry Johnstone."

LIFE INSURANCE FUND PAYABLE AT HOME OFFICE

Decision of Court of Appeals for Territory of Hawaii Affirmed Yesterday.

The decision of the Court of Appeals for the Territory of Hawaii in the case of the Equitable Life Assurance Society against Cecil Brown, administrator of the estate of Thomas B. Smith, was yesterday affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The question involved was whether the life insurance fund should be paid at the office of the Assurance Society in New York, or in Hawaii. The territorial court held it should be paid in New York as the policy required. This finding was upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States.

DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIETIES' UNION SERVICE

Three addresses of interest were made Sunday afternoon at the union service of all the Epworth League societies in the District, held in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church. The Hon. W. E. Andrews was the principal speaker. Taking as his subject "Youth and the Missions," he outlined to the members of the league the value of their work in missionary fields of the great cities, as well as in supporting that carried on in foreign countries.

The Rev. J. O. Spencer, D. D., president of Morgan College, and the Rev. F. G. Porter, D. D., of Baltimore, also spoke. The former gave his views on the Epworth League movement, and the latter confined his remarks to detail work of the league.

The service was largely attended. It was presided over by F. T. Israel, president of the District Society.

Sunday evening, after the union service, the regular league meeting of the Metropolitan Church society was held. Dr. J. H. Weser, first vice president of the District League, was the speaker.

SHIPMENTS OF AMERICAN CATTLE NOT DISEASED

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 2.—All cattle landed from the United States at Birkenhead since the notification of the prevalence of foot-and-mouth disease in New England, have been declared to be free of the disease. Four thousand head of cattle are now awaiting the work of the slaughterers.

THEFT OF GOLD BRACELET.

Mrs. Sell, 310 Four-and-a-half Street southwest, reported to the police yesterday that some one had entered her home through a back door and stolen a gold bracelet with seven gold-dollar bangles. The bracelet was taken out of a box which was kept in a trunk on the second floor.

A FORTUNE MADE BY UNPAID ADVERTISEMENT

Swindler Had $50,000 to His Credit in Bank.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—John H. Dalton, a saloonkeeper at 431 North Clark Street, a politician who is known as the "King of Little Hell," was convicted in the United States district court late yesterday afternoon of having used the mails fraudulently.

The jury had listened to the evidence for almost two weeks. Only twenty minutes were required to reach a verdict. A motion for a new trial will be argued. Newspaper publishers in all parts of the United States, and some in Europe, were the victims of Dalton's alleged scheme. The testimony showed that in organizing the Independent Advertising Agency he planned to get free advertising for a concern known as the International Aural Clinic. It was charged that 7,000 papers accepted Dalton's advertisements, and that their claims amount to more than $200,000.

Through this advertising Dalton got large returns in the way of sales of a patent ear drum made by the "Aural Clinic." The testimony showed that his bank account was at least $50,000.

A NEW DEBATING SOCIETY.

The law students of Columbian University have organized a new society to be known as the Needham Debating Society. It will be notified that it has received its name in honor of Dr. Needham, president of the university, who is very desirous of doing all in his power to encourage all debating opportunities in his institution.

The primary object of the new organization is the development of debating ability among its members and incidentally to bring about some competition in debate at the university. The Needham Society in every respect is to be on a par with the old and time-honored debating society of the school and it is to be hoped that a healthy rivalry will be experienced between the two organizations.

Election of officers of the new society was had on Saturday afternoon after a long and enthusiastic campaign for the honor of presidency, in which Otto L. Ferris, of Iowa, was the successful candidate. The other officers elected were: Vice president, Frank Waite, Alabama; secretary, S. H. Cutting, Michigan; treasurer, C. J. Hellerstedt, critics, C. M. C. Spooner, L. T. Poynton, sergeant-at-arms, B. P. Hicks, Michigan; executive committee, C. H. Wilson, W. E. Todd, Jr., P. L. Bone, and M. P. Clarke.
